We shall not be deemed to be in default of any provision hereof or be liable for any delay, failure in performance, or interruption of service resulting directly or indirectly from acts of God, civil or military authority, civil disturbance, war, strikes, fires, other catastrophes, power failure or any other cause beyond Our reasonable control.

11) NO LIABILITY AND NO WARRANTY.

Except in instances where there has been a finding of willful misconduct or gross negligence, in which case the party found to have engaged in such conduct cannot avail itself of the protections in this paragraph, neither the Cantor Exchange (including its affiliates and any contractors and sub-contractors providing services to the exchange) nor any of their respective directors, officers, employees or agents shall be liable to any other person, including any participant or person associated with a participant (including any Authorized Trader), for any losses, damages, costs or expenses (including loss of profits, loss of use, direct, indirect, incidental or consequential damages), arising from (a) any failure or malfunction, including any inability to enter or cancel orders, of the Cantor Direct System or any exchange services or facilities used to support the Cantor Direct System, or (b) any fault in delivery, delay, omission, suspension, inaccuracy or termination, or any other cause, in connection with the furnishing, performance, maintenance, use of or inability to use all or any part of the Cantor Direct System or any exchange services or facilities used to support the Cantor Direct System. The services of the exchange are being provided on an "as is" basis at the sole risk of You (including Your Authorized Trader(s), if any) and We specifically disclaim any implied warranty of title, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose and non-infringement.

14) GOVERNING LAW.

This Agreement is deemed entered into in New York, New York and shall be governed and construed in all respects by the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to principles of conflict of law.

- b) Any dispute, claim or controversy that We may have with or against You shall be resolved through binding arbitration conducted by the National Futures Association; provided that nothing in this paragraph shall limit Our ability to take any action permitted under the Rules or Applicable Law, or for Us at any time to seek equitable relief.

16) HEADINGS.

The headings in this Agreement are intended for convenience of reference and shall not affect its interpretation.

17) SEVERABILITY.

21) REFERRING PARTICIPANTS.

To the extent You identify yourself, or are identified by Us as a "Referring Participant", the terms set forth in the attached Referring Participant Addendum shall be deemed incorporated into this Agreement.

ADDENDUM FOR REFERRING PARTICIPANTS

The following Addendum to this Agreement applies only to Referring Participants.

1) PAYMENTS DUE TO REFERRING PARTICIPANTS

- a) We shall pay each Referring Participant according to the schedule published on the Cantor Exchange website. We shall accrue such payments. Each Referring Participant may withdraw accrued amounts monthly, in arrears, but may do so only in increments of $1,000.
- b) We shall make such payments directly to You independent of any amounts that may be owed by the Participant referred by You to Us, or owed by Us to the Participants referred by You. Provided, however, if any Participant referred by You is in breach of this Agreement to Cantor Exchange, or has been sanctioned by Cantor Exchange by the imposition of a fine, We may withhold the amount outstanding of the applicable referral amounts related to such referred Participant until such breach or fine has been remedied and is no longer outstanding.
- c) We shall not be responsible for taxes of any type owed by You resulting from this Agreement. You shall be solely responsible for handling of any tax matters, including making periodic tax payments in connection with payment received under this Agreement. We will neither withhold nor make tax payments for You or on Your behalf.
- d) In the event You are in breach of this Agreement or have been fined by Cantor Exchange, We may withhold part or all of any payment that would otherwise be due You until the breach or fine has been remedied (without prejudice to any other remedy that may be available to Cantor Exchange).

2) REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

- a) You acknowledge and agree that you have no authority to bind Cantor Exchange in any way, or to enter into any Agreement on behalf of Cantor Exchange, and you will not hold yourself out as having any such authority. You acknowledge and agree that you are not, and will not hold yourself out as nor permit any third party to believe that you are, an employee, agent or affiliate of Cantor Exchange.
- b) You acknowledge and agree that We are not responsible for and will not: (i) control Your place of business; (ii) control or supervise Your hiring of Your employees; (iii) train, supervise or discipline Your employees; (iv) share common employees with You; or (v) control, develop or supervise Your marketing practices. We shall not be liable for any costs You incur related to this Agreement.
- c) You warrant that at all times during the term of this Agreement, You: (i) are, and will remain, registered with the CFTC as a Futures Commission Merchant or as an Introducing Broker; (ii) are, and will remain, in material compliance with the applicable law, including all applicable requirements of the CFTC, the National Futures Association ("NFA"), other self-regulatory organization of which You are a member and this Exchange; (iii) will promptly notify Us, in writing, if Your adjusted net capital falls below the requirements of the NFA and/or the CFTC or if Your registration shall lapse, cease, or otherwise no longer be in good standing; and (iv) You do not and will not use or compensate any third-party unregulated person to solicit on Your behalf.
- d) You represent that You will promptly advise Us of any formal regulatory or legal investigation into Your affairs by the CFTC or the NFA, of the filing of any legal or administrative complaint filed by any other regulatory authority or of the issuance of any material sanction imposed by a self-regulatory authority. A material sanction is a suspension of trading privileges for any period of time or a fine of $25,000 or greater.

3) SOLICITATION MATERIALS

- a) You acknowledge and agree that You will not issue any advertisement or distribute any promotional material, whether on the internet or otherwise, about Your electronic or other form of automated connection to Cantor Exchange, without Our express written consent. In consenting to Your use of any advertisement or promotional material, We may require that you make reasonable amendments thereto. We agree that once Cantor Exchange has consented to the use of a particular advertisement or promotional matter, only material amendments to such particular advertisement or promotional matter are required to be submitted to Us for our consent hereunder.

- b) We will act in good faith and shall endeavor to consent or not consent to Your use of any such advertisement or promotional material within 14 business days of receipt of a request for consent.
- c) Any advertisement or other promotional material issued by You that, directly or indirectly, promotes Your electronic or other form of automated connection to Cantor Exchange or which makes use of the Cantor Exchange name shall not be misleading and must include an appropriate risk warning. Such advertisement or promotional material must be clear that it is Your advertisement or promotional material and that You are its sponsor. Such advertisement or promotional material may not explicitly state or implicitly imply that Cantor Exchange has approved, endorsed, or is jointly responsible for, the content of the advertisement or promotional material.
- d) Your electronic or other form of automated connection must provide clear and prominent notice to each Participant that the Participant is entering orders and trading on Cantor Exchange.

To the extent You are referred to Cantor Futures Exchange, L.P. ("CX") by a Referring Participant, You acknowledge and agree to the terms and conditions set forth in this Disclosure and Consent to Referral Relationship. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Participant Agreement.

CX may provide referral fees to Futures Commission Merchants or Introducing Brokers registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission and the National Futures Association in connection with referrals of persons that become Participants on CX. These referral fees may be based on Your trading activity.

The Referring Participant who referred You is not CX's agent, employee or affiliate and has no authority to bind CX in any way, or to enter into any agreement, arrangement or contract on CX's behalf.

You consent to CX's disclosure to the Referring Participant of information regarding You and Your trading activity in connection with payment of referral fees and for other purposes. The disclosure to the Referring Participant, which may be made periodically, may include Your name, account identifier, account balance, trading activity, and fee revenue and charges attributed to Your account. BY USING THE CANTOR EXCHANGE AND ENTERING INTO TRANSACTIONS IN DIGITAL SWAPS, FUTURES OR BINARY OPTIONS CONTRACTS ON THE CANTOR EXCHANGE, YOU REPRESENT AND WARRANT THAT YOU AGREE TO THE REFERRAL RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN CX AND THE REFERRING PARTICIPANT IN CONNECTION WITH YOUR ACCOUNT AND THAT YOU HAVE RECEIVED, READ AND UNDERSTOOD ALL TERMS AND DISCLOSURES HEREIN.

As used in this Risk Disclosure Statement:

"You", "Your" and "Yourself" include you personally if you are applying for or holding a personal account and your Authorized Traders, if any, and, if you are using the Cantor Exchange or applying for an account on behalf of a company or organization, such company or organization and its Authorized Traders;

"Cantor Exchange" means Cantor Futures Exchange, L.P.;

"Cantor Clearinghouse" means Cantor Clearinghouse, L.P.; and

"We," "Us" or "Our" means, collectively, the Cantor Exchange and Cantor Clearinghouse.

THE RISK OF LOSS IN TRADING COMMODITY DIGITAL SWAPS OR FUTURES CONTRACTS CAN BE SUBSTANTIAL. YOU SHOULD, THEREFORE, CAREFULLY CONSIDER WHETHER SUCH TRADING IS SUITABLE FOR YOU IN LIGHT OF YOUR CIRCUMSTANCES AND FINANCIAL RESOURCES.

SPECIFICALLY, SWAPS TRANSACTIONS, LIKE OTHER FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS, INVOLVE A VARIETY OF SIGNIFICANT RISKS. THE SPECIFIC RISKS PRESENTED BY A PARTICULAR SWAP TRANSACTION NECESSARILY DEPEND UPON THE TERMS OF THE TRANSACTION AND YOUR CIRCUMSTANCES. IN GENERAL, HOWEVER, ALL SWAPS TRANSACTIONS INVOLVE SOME COMBINATION OF MARKET RISK, CREDIT RISK, FUNDING RISK, AND OPERATIONAL RISK.

YOU SHOULD BE AWARE OF THE FOLLOWING POINTS.

We have summarized in this Risk Disclosure Statement the principal risks related to transactions in digital swaps, futures or binary options contracts and of trading on the Cantor Exchange. This Statement, however, cannot and does not address all of the material risks associated with transactions in these contracts and does not include all of the details related to the risks identified below. You must familiarize yourself with the particular contracts you intend to trade, the use of the Cantor Exchange, and the related risks, and you must conduct your own investigation and evaluation of such risks. You are solely responsible for evaluating the merits of participation in trading digital swaps, futures or binary options contracts on the Cantor Exchange and the appropriateness and adequacy of such contracts and the Cantor Exchange for you, given your circumstances, including your financial resources, your experience with trading, and your goals.

Trading in digital swaps, futures and binary options contracts is not suitable for everyone and can result in losses up to, and in some circumstances above, the entire amount you invest. You should only trade on the Cantor Exchange after you have carefully reviewed this Risk Disclosure Statement and are certain that you fully understand the risks associated with trading digital swaps, futures and binary options contracts.

Volatility. The prices of digital swaps, futures and binary options contracts and the resulting performance of positions in such contracts may be highly volatile and the short term trading of such contracts could therefore result in substantial losses.

Liquidity Risks. Although the Cantor Exchange may permit trading by professional market makers that stand ready to purchase or sell contracts on the Cantor Exchange, the Cantor Exchange does not ensure that such market makers are present in the market. As a result, there may not always be liquidity for all products traded on the Cantor Exchange and you may be unable to liquidate a position as quickly as you would like. It is also possible that no one will sell to you a contract that you wish to purchase or buy from you a position that you wish to liquidate. You may therefore be forced to hold a position until it expires and unable to hedge against losses arising from the position.

Credit Risks. All transactions in contracts executed through the Cantor Exchange will be cleared through Cantor Clearinghouse, an affiliate of the Cantor Exchange that is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cantor Fitzgerald, L.P., and will interpose itself between the trading parties and assume the contract obligations of each party to the other. In this capacity, Cantor Clearinghouse will be responsible for the determination, collection and payment of all amounts of margin, and all final settlement payments, due from and to market participants. Accordingly, while market participants will not have direct exposure to the creditworthiness of other market participants, it is possible that, in the event of a default by a participant, the Cantor Clearinghouse will require the liquidation of open positions on the opposite side of the market. You will therefore continue to have indirect exposure to the creditworthiness of other participants.

Trading on Margin. Trading on margin can significantly increase the risk of trading digital swaps, futures and binary options contracts. It is possible to lose more than the funds you invest by trading on margin. A decline in the value of contracts purchased on margin may result in a margin call requiring that you deposit additional funds with Cantor Clearinghouse on short notice. If you are unable to meet any margin calls, you may be subject to forced liquidation of contracts from your account and you will not be entitled to choose which contracts are liquidated.

Conflicts of Interest. The Cantor Exchange and the Cantor Clearinghouse are each wholly-owned subsidiaries of Cantor Fitzgerald, L.P. ("Cantor"), which is engaged in a variety of financial services businesses, including but not limited to securities and futures brokerage and trading. In addition, Cantor or its affiliates provide and will continue to provide a variety of services to the Cantor Exchange and the Cantor Clearinghouse. These affiliations and services could present certain potential conflicts of interest.

Trading by Affiliates. One or more affiliates of Cantor Exchange and Cantor Clearinghouse may conduct transactions on Cantor Exchange for their own proprietary accounts. These affiliates are separate from Cantor Exchange. The positions taken by Cantor Exchange's affiliates may be opposite to the positions taken by You.

Risks Related to Trading Over the Internet. Certain risks are inherent in trading electronically over the internet. These include risks of computer, communications, or power systems failures or other malfunctions that may temporarily preclude access to the Cantor Exchange or Cantor Clearinghouse. Any time that you are for any reason unable to access the Cantor Exchange, you will not be able to place, modify, or cancel orders. Additionally, a catastrophic systems failure may disrupt your orders and the order queue on the Cantor Exchange. The liability of the Cantor Exchange and Cantor Clearinghouse for losses incurred in connection with such failures or malfunctions is limited under the Rules of each entity.

Access to Your Account. Only you and people identified by you as Authorized Traders may trade for your account. You are solely responsible for all trading by Authorized Traders for your account. Do not share your login user name and password with anyone, and ensure that any Authorized Traders do not share their login user name and password. Should someone attain unauthorized access to your login user name and password, and/or the login user name and password of one of your Authorized Traders, you will be responsible for any trades entered by that person for your account. You should therefore monitor the activity in your account closely and alert us immediately if you notice any unauthorized activity in your account or believe that an unauthorized person has gained access to your account.

Limitations of Trading Privileges. The Cantor Exchange may at any time suspend, revoke, limit, condition, restrict or qualify the trading privileges of any Market participants or their Authorized Traders if, in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors of the Cantor Exchange, such action is in the best interests of the Cantor Exchange. If your trading privileges are suspended, revoked, limited, conditioned, restricted or qualified Cantor Exchange may in some circumstances liquidate your positions, and you will not have the benefit of subsequent favorable market movements. Conversely, if your trading privileges are terminated, you might not be able to liquidate open positions and could be required to absorb losses on such positions.

THIS BRIEF STATEMENT CANNOT DISCLOSE ALL THE RISKS AND OTHER ASPECTS OF TRADING ON THE CANTOR EXCHANGE. BY USING THE CANTOR EXCHANGE AND ENTERING INTO TRANSACTIONS IN DIGITAL SWAPS, FUTURES OR BINARY OPTIONS CONTRACTS ON THE CANTOR EXCHANGE, YOU REPRESENT AND WARRANT THAT YOU HAVE EVALUATED THE MERITS AND RISKS OF YOUR USE OF THE CANTOR EXCHANGE AND HAVE DETERMINED THAT SUCH TRANSACTIONS ARE APPROPRIATE FOR YOU AND THAT YOU ARE CAPABLE OF ASSUMING, AND ARE PREPARED TO ASSUME, THE RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH SUCH TRANSACTIONS.
